Scripture

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day. And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day. And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day. And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day. And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.” So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8 All sing the refrain after the choir, and where indicated.

O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger. Refrain

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor; Refrain

You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world! Refrain

2nd Lesson

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel Please stand

Matthew 28:16-20

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Lay Eucharistic Minister Commissioning

Sponsor

Reverend Sir, I present to you these persons who have been chosen and licensed to administer the Holy Communion in this congregation to the sick and the infirm.

Rector

Will you be diligent in extending the fellowship of God's table to those who due to illness or infirmity are unable to join us in worship?

Lay Eucharistic Ministers

We will.

Rector

In the Name of God and of this congregation, I commission you to share Holy Communion with those prevented from attending worship in person with us.

Let us pray.

Grant, Almighty God, that those who are sent to bear Christ's body and blood, to visit those who are sick, alone, or in prison, may know that in ministering to those who suffer, they minister even unto Christ our Lord. Grant them patience, graciousness, and peace at the last.

Amen.

Announcements

El Salvador “First Impressions” Forum (11:30am) Last Thursday our group of 13 pilgrims made it home. They had a fantastic trip and learned a great deal from, and with, our Salvadoran counterparts in Cristosal's "Global School." Thank you all who supported us and prayed for the trip. We'll have an informal "first impressions" forum after the service. We'll also welcome back Brooklyn Payne, who will return for good from Panama next week.

Second Summer Sundays – tonight! (5:30pm) Join us on the second Sunday of each of the summer months (June 11, July 9 and August 13). At 5:30pm in Mitchell Fellowship Hall we will have a simple relaxed service of Eucharist around the dinner table, followed by an activity for all generations. Each month will feature a guest musician. We hope you can join us for this relaxed summer service. All are welcome – invite a friend!

June 11: The former rector of Holy Communion, The Rev. Brooke Myers, will lead the music. Our activity after dinner and the service will be a “song circle.” Bring an instrument, a drum, or just your voice to sing along. Hope to see you there!

July 9: A board game extravaganza. Bring your favorite game to play, after the worship and dinner is cleared up, we'll play board games ranging from the serious to the silly. (Musicians TBA, stay tuned!)

August 13: We'll have a dance for all ages with a live band (band TBA, stay tuned!)

Sunday Book Club (11:45am) The Book Group will meet on June 18 so we can participate in this morning's El Salvador Forum. This month's title is My Antonia, by Willa Cather. Join us for an engaging discussion of this book in the Vestry Room following the 10:30 service next Sunday. On July 9 we will discuss The Moonstone, by Wilkie Collins. All are invited! Questions? Contact Barbara Robinson (brobin313@aol.com).

Sign up to sponsor Altar Flowers! Our Flower Ministry volunteers do a fabulous job and make it easy and affordable to sponsor altar flowers. The cost is $55 and can be paid by check or online at holychommunion.net/worship. Sign up on the bulletin board in the entryway.
