

The Nativity of Our Lord

December 24, 2017 at 5:00 p.m.

Our Mission Welcome to The Episcopal Church of the Holy Communion, a welcoming and diverse community seeking to walk in the way of Jesus and to reveal Christ's reconciling love in our city, nation, and world.

Can I receive Communion? Yes. Whoever you are, wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome to receive the bread and wine made holy.

Visiting Children All visiting children are invited to join in the telling of the Christmas story as shepherds and angels. During the carol singing, come see our youth group for an outfit and a sheep!

Are children welcome? We like to say we expect everyone to act their age. Acting your age as a little one can mean restlessness in worship. Wiggles and giggles are welcome too! Children learn by watching adults worship. There are coloring sheets and quiet books at the back of the church. Our chapel is a sound-proof place to bring a crying infant, or a boisterous toddler, with windows into the church and speakers broadcasting the sound from the service. Ask an usher if you need any assistance.

How do I find my way around? There is a map by the Welcome Table in the main entryway (on the East side of the church). Also, feel free to ask anyone around you for directions, or help navigating the service.

Where are the restrooms? There are single-user, all-gender restrooms in the Lounge, through the main (East) door, and through the next glass door. There are gendered, larger restrooms downstairs (take the elevator or stairs at the end of the long hallway in front of that entrance). Changing tables are available in the downstairs restrooms or in the nursery.

Is there wheelchair accessibility? Yes. Our entrances have auto-open buttons, and our elevator is ADA compliant. Both the downstairs restrooms and one of the upstairs restrooms are accessible. Everyone is invited to remain seated during the service as they need.

What about hearing assistance? We can help there, too. Hearing assistance devices are available from the ushers. Just ask.

How do I get involved? If you begin by filling out a "Connect Card" in your pew, or at the Welcome Table, we'd be glad to keep you up to date with all that goes on here. You can also use the Connect Cards to update your information, request prayers, or to ask a question.

Become a member. All are welcome to be here and to explore. If you would like to learn more and meet interesting people, consider joining in Pilgrimage, the Rector's classes for newcomers and explorers. A new class begins in February, 2018. Email the rector for more information or to sign up (mangell@holycommunion.net).

Carol Singing

Go, Tell It on the Mountain

LEVAS 21

Refrain *Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go, tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born.*

1 While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, Behold throughout the heavens
there shown a holy light.

Refrain

2 The shepherds feared and trembled, when lo! above the earth, Rang out the angel chorus that hailed the Savior's birth.

Refrain

3 Down in a lowly manger
the humble Christ was born,
And God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

Refrain

Es ist ein Ros

Hymnal 81

1 Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming as seers of old have sung.
It came, a blossom bright,
amid the cold of winter,
when half spent was the night.

2 Isaiah 'twas foretold it,
the Rose I have in mind,
with Mary we behold it,
the Virgin Mother kind.
To show God's love aright,
she bore to us a Savior,
when half spent was the night.

3 O Flower, whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air, dispel in glorious splendor
the darkness everywhere;
true man, yet very God,
from sin and death now save us,
and share our every load.

Anthem

Still, Still, Still

Austrian Carol, arr. Norman Luboff

1 Still, still, still, one can hear the falling snow
For all is hushed, the world is sleeping
Holy star its vigil keeping
Still, still, still, one can hear the falling snow.

2 Sleep, sleep, sleep, 'tis the eve of our Savior's birth
The night is peaceful all around you Close your eyes, let sleep surround you
Sleep, sleep, sleep, 'tis the eve of our Savior's birth

3 Dream, dream, dream of the joyous day to come.
While guardian angels without number;
Watch you as you sweetly slumber Dream, dream, dream of the joyous day to come.

1 God rest you merry, gentlemen,
let nothing you dismay;
remember Christ our Savior was born on Christmas Day, to save us all from Satan's power
when we were gone astray.

*Refrain O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy;
O tidings of comfort and joy!*

2 From God our heavenly Father a blessed angel came and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same:
how that in Bethlehem was born
the Son of God by name.

Refrain

3 "Fear not, then," said the angel,
"Let nothing you affright;
this day is born a Savior
of a pure virgin bright, to free all those who trust in him from Satan's power and might."

Refrain

4 Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place,
and with true love and charity
each other now embrace;
this holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace.

Refrain

Offertory Anthem:

Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day

John Gardner

*Tomorrow shall be my dancing day:
I would my true love did so chance
To see the legend of my play,
to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
this have I done for my true love.
Then was I born of a virgin pure,
of her I took fleshly substance;
Thus was I knit to man's nature,
to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love...*

*In a manger laid and wrapped I was,
so very poor, this was my chance, Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass,
to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love...
Then afterwards baptized I was;
the Holy Ghost on me did glance,
My Father's voice heard from above,
to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love...*

1 The first Nowell the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
 in fields as they lay, keeping their sheep,
 on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain: Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, born is the King of Israel.

2 They looked up and saw a star shining in the east beyond them far,
 and to the earth it gave great light,
 and so it continued both day and night.

Refrain

3 And by the light of that same star three wise men came from country far;
 to seek for a king was their intent,
 and to follow the star wherever it went.

Refrain

4 This star drew nigh to the northwest, o'er Bethlehem it took its rest, and there it did both stop and stay right over the place where Jesus lay.

Refrain

5 Then entered in those wise men three full reverently upon their knee, and offered there in his presence their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.

Refrain

6 Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
 that hath made heaven and earth of nought,
 and with his blood our life hath bought.

Refrain

Lighting of the Christmas Candle Please stand. Congregational responses appear in bold.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light; Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Hymn: Please stand

Adeste fidelis

Hymnal 83, vv. 1, 3, 4, 6

1 O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
 O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
 Come, and behold him,
 born the King of angels;

Refrain O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

3 Sing, choirs of angels,
 sing in exultation,
 sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
 Glory to God,
 glory in the highest;

Refrain

4 See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle,
 leaving their flocks,
 draw nigh to gaze;

We too will thither
 bend our joyful footsteps

Refrain

6 Yea, Lord, we greet thee,
 born this happy morning;
 Jesus, to thee be glory given;
 Word of the Father,
 now in flesh appearing;

Refrain

Welcome and Opening Sentences

The Rev. Mike Angell

Please be seated for the duration of the pageant, including the hymns.

The Setting

This night is like no other night. It is a time to dream and sing our way to Bethlehem.

The little town we seek sits in the hill country some ten miles south of Jerusalem. For thousands of years the houses have gathered there on the hilltop like a family breaking bread. "Bethlehem" means "House of Bread."

In the center of the village is a small inn. On this night it is overflowing with people seeking sleep and a place to eat. Behind the inn is a dark stable. A gray donkey chews his barley and broken straw while a weary cow leans and rests after the day's plowing in the valley. A sheep nearby is nearly asleep. All is still and quiet in the little town.

Congregational Carol Sung by all.

St. Louis

Hymnal 79, vv. 1 & 2

- 1 O little town of Bethlehem,
how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth
the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

Mary and Joseph Arrive in Bethlehem

As night gathers, the last two travelers come slowly up the road. Look, there is a young woman about to be a mother. She is walking with her husband. They are Mary and Joseph from Nazareth! They have walked for six days to come to this city where King David was born, so long ago.

They have come, like so many others, because the Roman emperor wants to count each one, so he can take their money as a tax.

But it is late, and Mary is so weary. Where will they sleep? There is no room in the inn. They decide to sleep with the animals.

- 2 For Christ is born of Mary;
and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
and praises sing to God the King,
and peace to men on earth.

Jesus is Born

Stars brighten slowly in the sky. All creation holds its breath. Suddenly, from the stable, comes the cry of a newborn child! Mary gently wraps the baby in a blanket and lays him in the feed box that his father has filled with straw.

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.
The cattle are lowing the Baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying He makes,
I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky,
And stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.
Be near me Lord Jesus, I ask thee to stay,
Close by me forever, and love me, I pray.
And fit us for heaven to live with thee there.

Shepherds and Angels

Children who are shepherds are invited to gather near the back of the church. Angels come up to the front.

In the hills outside Bethlehem, shepherds watch their shadowy sheep. All at once, the dark is lost in light, and in the midst of the light is something even brighter: the faces of angels. The fearful shepherds then hear music in the sky, and a voice says clearly,

Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by all people. Today in the City of David a Savior is born! He is Christ, the Lord.

Then more angels appear, a whole heavenly host of them, praising God and singing:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will to all people, everywhere.

- 1 Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night,
and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.
Refrain Gloria in excelsis Deo.
- 3 Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
Come, adore on bended knee
Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Refrain Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds Head to Bethlehem

The Shepherds make their way to the front of the church.

The shepherds run with joy across the fields to Bethlehem to the barn behind the inn. There they find the Holy Family and creep forward, overwhelmed with mystery, to find Nativity itself in the center of all that love.

- 1 While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
all seated on the ground,
the angel of the Lord came down and glory shone around.
- 2 “Fear not,” said he, for might dread had seized their troubled mind; “Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and all mankind.”
- 6 “All glory be to God on high and on earth be peace;
Good will henceforth from heaven to men begin and never cease.”

A Christmas Hope

So now we all come, to find God-with-us. We come, as people have come all through the ages, to bring our own gifts to this Child, God’s gift to us.

We tell this tale of wonder and majesty every year, as it has been told for thousands of years. The story of angels and shepherds, stables and mangers, Mary and Joseph and the Christ Child.

And though the message does not change, we hope that the message continues to change our hearts, to change our minds, to bring needed change to our world. This Christmas, may God’s promised peace be born in our world again.

Joy to you and your family on this Christmastide!

Betelehemu

Nigerian Carol, arr. Barrington Brooks

We are glad that we have a Father to trust.
We are glad that we have a Father to rely upon.
Where was Jesus born? Where was He born?
Bethlehem, the city of wonder,
That is where the Father was born for sure.
Praise, praise, praise be to Him.
We thank Thee, we thank Thee,
we thank Thee for this day, Gracious Father.
Praise, praise be to Thee, merciful Father.

Offertory Carol: Sung by all.

In dulci jubilo

Hymnal 107

1 Good Christian friends, rejoice
with heart and soul and voice;
give ye heed to what we say:
Jesus Christ is born today; ox and ass before him bow,
and he is in the manger now.
Christ is born today!

2 Good Christian friends, rejoice
with heart and soul and voice;
now ye hear of endless bliss;
Jesus Christ was born for this!
He hath opened heaven's door,
and we are blest for evermore.
Christ was born for this!

3 Good Christian friends, rejoice
with heart and soul and voice;
now ye need not fear the grave:
Jesus Christ was born to save!
Calls you one and calls you all to gain his everlasting hall.
Christ was born to save!

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please remain standing.

On the night Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup; gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, gracious God, we bring you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Merciful God, gather us by this Holy Communion into one body in your Christ. Make us a living sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on Him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Administration of the Sacrament

You are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Gluten Free wafers are available, on request, from the minister. On the left (West) side of the altar rail, the chalice is filled with white grape juice, as a sign of welcome for those who choose not to consume wine. On the right (East) side of the altar rail, the chalice is traditional red wine. Please feel free to cross the aisle for your preferred chalice. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, simply cross your arms over your chest.

Hymnal 89

Post Communion Prayer please kneel or stand

Gracious God, tonight you have united earth and heaven in sending your Son to take our human nature. May we, who have tasted heavenly things, share in the life of Christ's kingdom. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lighting of the Candles

*Please tip your candle into the flame to receive the light;
after receiving the light, please hold your candle upright.*

Hymn after Communion

Stille Nacht

Hymnal 111

- 1 Silent night, holy night,
all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace.
- 2 Silent night, holy night,
shepherds quake at the sight,
glories stream from heaven afar,
heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born!

- 3 Silent night, holy night,
Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Christmas Blessing

May God, who sent angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior's birth, fill you with joy and make you heralds of the Gospel. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

At the conclusion of the blessing, please cup your hand behind the flame and extinguish your candle.

Final Hymn

Antioch

Hymnal 100

- 1 Joy to the world! the Lord is come:
let earth receive her King;
let every heart prepare him room,
and heaven and nature sing.
- 2 Joy to the world! the Savior reigns;
let us our songs employ,
while fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
nor thorns infest the ground;
he comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found.
- 4 He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love.

The Dismissal:

Alleluia! Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia!
